Executives Evaluation Committee Report

Report

The Executive Evaluation Committee was created by the General Meeting to assess the performance of the MathSoc executive, and provide a recommendation as to whether or not the executive should be awarded their honoraria for the term.

For Fall 2014, the members of the committee are:

- Nigel Cheung
- Gayle Goodfellow
- Simone Hu
- Febrian Sidharta
- Josh Tsai

The committee met two times over the course of the term. Our methodology was to evaluate the performance of the current executive team based on previously established metrics and their individual goals. The members of the committee then voted on which recommendation to make in this report. Members of the committee would like the General Meeting to know that the votes were not unanimous.

President: Lauren Hurley

The committee recommends the General Meeting award the honorarium, as the committee sees no reason that it should be withheld from Lauren Hurley for the Fall 2014 term.

- The committee recognizes the President has:
  - Made progress in the renovation of the MC Comfy Lounge
  - Improved the relationship with the Math Faculty
  - Held two successful General Meetings
  - Sent out regular communications to the members of the Society
- The committee has concerns regarding:
  - The timing of notice in communications
  - Co-opting of major MathSoc events
  - Delegation of tasks

Vice-President, Academic: Kevin Shi

The committee recommends the General Meeting award the honorarium, as the committee sees no reason that it should be withheld from Kevin Shi for the Fall 2014 term.

- The committee recognizes the Vice-President, Academic has:
  - Held resume workshops and mock interviews for the Society
  - Held academic integrity workshops
  - Created a list of textbooks available in MathSoc’s library
  - Represented the Society in Undergraduate Affairs Committee meetings
- The committee has concerns regarding:
  - Progress of the MathSoc exam bank update
Vice-President, Events: Nancy Yang
The committee recommends the General Meeting award the honorarium, as the committee sees no reason that it should be withheld from Nancy Yang for the Fall 2014 term.

- The committee recognizes the Vice-President, Events has:
  - Organized holiday and spirit day events
  - Attempted to increase interaction with and between students during MathSoc events
- The committee has concerns regarding:
  - Completion of the VPE guidebook

Vice-President, Finance: Anthony Liu
The committee recommends the General Meeting award the honorarium, as the committee sees no reason that it should be withheld from Anthony Liu for the Fall 2014 term.

- The committee recognizes the Vice-President, Finance has:
  - Budget was prepared and approved
  - Improved internal cash control
  - Processed expense reimbursements in an acceptable time

Vice-President, Operations: Ty Rozak
The committee recommends the General Meeting award the honorarium, as the committee sees no reason that it should be withheld from Ty Rozak for the Fall 2014 term.

- The committee recognizes the Vice-President, Operations has:
  - Effected Office policy change
  - Made progress on website development
  - Reviewed results of website security audit
  - Worked with the Office Services Manager to better define the Office space
- The committee has concerns regarding:
  - Implementation of security audit feedback

Recommendations
- Increase delegation of tasks among executive
- Greater focus on Marketing & Communications
Appendix: Proposed Reporting for future Executive Evaluation Committee

This report features recommendations to the future committee and the proposed metrics for evaluating the MathSoc executive.
